

General Instructions

A Change To Note

You may be able to use a credit card to get an extension of time to file without sending in Form 4868. See Extension of Time To File Using a Credit Card below for more details.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 4868 to apply for 4 more months to file Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A, Form 1040, Form 1040NR-EZ, or Form 1040NR.

To get the extra time you MUST:

- Properly estimate your 1999 tax liability using the information available to you,
- Enter your tax liability on line 9 of Form 4868, AND
- File Form 4868 by the regular due date of your return.

You are not required to make a payment of the tax you estimate as due. But remember, Form 4868 does not extend the time to pay taxes. If you do not pay the amount due by the regular due date, you will owe interest. You may also be charged penalties. For more details, see Interest and Late Payment Penalty on page 3. Any remittance you make with your application for extension will be treated as a payment of tax.

You do not have to explain why you are asking for the extension. We will contact you only if your request is denied.

Do not file Form 4868 if you want the IRS to figure your tax or you are under a court order to file your return by the regular due date.

If you need an additional extension, see If You Need Additional Time on page 3.

Note: Generally, an extension of time to file your 1999 calendar year income tax return also extends the time to file a gift or generation-skipping transfer (GST) tax return (Form 709 or 709-A) for 1999. Special rules apply if the donor dies during the year in which the gifts were made. See the Instructions for Form 709.

Extension of Time To File Using a Credit Card

You generally can get an extension by phone if you pay part or all of your estimate of income tax due by using a credit card (American Express® Card, MasterCard®, or Discover® Card). To pay by credit card, call 1-888-2PAY-TAX (1-888-272- 9829) toll free by April 17, 2000, and follow the instructions. Your payment must be at least $1 to use this system. Before you call, fill in Form 4868 as a worksheet. You will be asked to enter certain items from the form during the call. A convenience fee will be charged by the credit card processor based on the amount you are paying. You will be told what the fee is when you call and you will have the option to either continue or cancel the call. You can also find out what the fee will be on the Internet at www.8882paytax.com.

You will be given a confirmation number at the end of the call. Keep the confirmation number with your records. Once you receive your confirmation number, you have completed the requirements for requesting an extension of time to file. Do not send in Form 4868.

Note: Although an extension of time to file your income tax return also extends the time to file Form 709 or 709-A, you cannot make payments of the gift or GST tax with a credit card. To make a payment of the gift or GST tax, send a check or money order to the service center where the donor's income tax return will be filed. Enter "1999 Form 709" and the donor's name and social security number on the payment. Do not send in Form 4868.

Out of the Country

If you already had 2 extra months to file because you were a U.S. citizen or resident and were out of the country, use this form to obtain an additional 2 months to file. Write "Taxpayer Abroad" across the top of Form 4868. "Out of the country" means either (a) you live outside the United States and Puerto Rico and your main place of work is outside the United States and Puerto Rico, or (b) you are in military or naval service outside the United States and Puerto Rico.

When To File Form 4868

File Form 4868 by April 17, 2000. Fiscal year taxpayers, file Form 4868 by the regular due date of the return.

If you had 2 extra months to file your return because you were out of the country, file Form 4868 by June 15, 2000, for a 1999 calendar year return.

How To Make Your Payment

- When paying by check or money order with Form 4868, use the addresses in the middle column under Where To File on page 2.
- Make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury." Do not send cash.
- Write your social security number, daytime phone number, and "1999 Form 4868" on your check or money order.
- Do not staple or attach your payment to the form.
- If you are paying by credit card, see Extension of Time To File Using a Credit Card on page 1.

If You Need Additional Time

If the automatic 4-month extension (until August 15, 2000, for most calendar year taxpayers) does not give you enough time, you can ask for additional time later. But you will have to give a good reason, and it must be approved by the IRS. To ask for the additional time, you must either:

1. File Form 2688, Application for Additional Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, or
2. Explain your reason in a letter. Mail it to the address in the right column under Where To File on page 2.

File Form 4868 before you file Form 2688 or write a letter asking for more time. Only in cases of undue hardship will the IRS approve your request for an additional extension without receiving Form 4868 first. Ask early for this extra time. Then, you can still file your return on time if your request is not approved.

Filing Your Tax Return

You may file your tax return any time before the extension expires.

Do not attach a copy of Form 4868 to your return.

Interest

You will owe interest on any tax not paid by the regular due date of your return. The interest runs until you pay the tax. Even if you had a good reason for not paying on time, you will still owe interest.

Late Payment Penalty

The penalty is usually $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% of any tax (other than estimated tax) not paid by the regular due date. It is charged for each month or part of a month the tax is unpaid. The maximum penalty is 25%.

The late payment penalty will not be charged if you can show reasonable cause for not paying on time. Attach a statement to your return fully explaining the reason. Do not attach the statement to Form 4868.

You are considered to have "reasonable cause" for the period covered by this automatic extension if at least 90% of your actual 1999 tax liability is paid before the regular due date of your return through withholding, estimated tax payments, or with Form 4868.

Late Filing Penalty

A penalty is usually charged if your return is filed after the due date (including extensions). It is usually 5% of the tax not paid by the regular due date for each month or part of a month your return is late. Generally, the maximum penalty is 25%. If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty is $100 or the balance of the tax due on your return, whichever is smaller. You might not owe the penalty if you have a good reason for filing late. Attach a statement to your return fully explaining the reason. Do not attach the statement to Form 4868.

How To Claim Credit for Payment Made With This Form

When you file your return, include the amount of any payment you made with Form 4868 on the appropriate line of your tax return. If you file Form 1040EZ, the instructions for line 9 of that form will tell you how to report the payment. If you file Form 1040A, see the instructions for line 39. If you file Form 1040, enter the payment on line 61. If you file Form 1040NR-EZ, see the instructions for line 22. If you file Form 1040NR, enter the payment on line 57.

If you and your spouse each filed a separate Form 4868 but later file a joint return for 1999, enter the total paid with both Forms 4868 on the appropriate line of your joint return.

If you and your spouse jointly file Form 4868 but later file separate returns for 1999, you may enter the total amount paid with Form 4868 on either of your separate returns. Or you and your spouse may divide the payment in any agreed amounts. Be sure each separate return has the social security numbers of both spouses.

Specific Instructions

How To Complete Form 4868

Skip Parts II and IV unless you are requesting an extension of time to file a gift or GST tax return.

Part I—Identification

Enter your name(s) and address. If you plan to file a joint return, include both spouses' names in the order in which they will appear on the return.

If you want correspondence regarding this extension to be sent to you at an address other than your own or to an agent acting for you, include the agent's name, if any, and enter that address instead.

If you changed your name after you filed your last return because of marriage, divorce, etc., be sure to report this to your local Social Security Administration office before filing Form 4868. This prevents delays in processing your extension request.

If you changed your mailing address after you filed your last return, you should use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the change. Showing a new address on Form 4868 will not update your record. You can get IRS forms by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676). You can also download forms from the IRS Internet web site at www.irs.gov.

If you plan to file jointly, enter on line 2 the social security number (SSN) that you will show first on your return. Enter your spouse's SSN on line 3.

If you are filing Form 1040NR-EZ or Form 1040NR, and do not have (and are not eligible to obtain) an SSN, enter your IRS-issued individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). For information on obtaining an ITIN, get Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number.

Part III—Individual Income Tax

Line 4—Total Tax Liability on Your Income Tax Return for 1999

This is the amount you expect to enter on Form 1040EZ, line 10; Form 1040A, line 34; Form 1040, line 56; Form 1040NR-EZ, line 18; or Form 1040NR, line 53. If you expect this amount to be zero, enter zero.

Caution: You can estimate this amount, but be as accurate as you can with the information you have. If we later find that your estimate was not reasonable, the extension will be null and void.

Line 5—Total Payments for 1999

This is the amount you expect to enter on Form 1040EZ, line 9; Form 1040A, line 39; Form 1040, line 64 (excluding line 61); Form 1040NR-EZ, line 22; or Form 1040NR, line 63 (excluding line 57). (For Forms 1040EZ, 1040A, and 1040NR-EZ, do not include in this total payments line the amount you are paying with this Form 4868.)

Line 6—Balance

Subtract line 5 from line 4. If line 5 is more than line 4, enter zero.

If you find you cannot pay the amount shown on line 6, you can still get the extension. But you should pay as much as you can to limit the amount of interest you will owe. Also, you may be charged the late payment penalty on the unpaid tax from the regular due date of your return. See Late Payment Penalty on page 3.

Part IV—Gift/GST Tax

Fill in this part only if you or your spouse plan to file Form 709 or 709-A and you are also using Form 4868 to apply for an extension of time to file your 1999 calendar year income tax return. Do not include income tax on lines 7 and 8.

Enter the amount of gift and GST tax you (or your spouse) are paying on these lines. If your spouse files a separate Form 4868, do not check the box in Part II for your spouse; enter on your form only the total gift and GST tax you are paying. Pay in full with this form to avoid interest and penalties.

Part V—Total

Enter the total of line 6 (and 7 and 8, if applicable) on line 9. If you are paying your entire estimate of tax liability, lines 9 and 10 should both be the same.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need this information so that our records will reflect your intention to file your individual income tax return within four months after the regular due date. If you choose to apply for an automatic extension of time to file, you are required by Internal Revenue Code section 6081 to provide the information requested on this form. Under section 6109 you must disclose your social security number (SSN) or individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, and the District of Columbia for use in administering their tax laws. If you fail to provide this information in a timely manner, or provide incomplete or false information, you may be liable for penalties and interest.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Internal Revenue Code section 6103.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is: Recordkeeping, 26 min.; Learning about the law or the form, 12 min.; Preparing the form, 17 min.; and Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS, 10 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Tax Forms Committee, Western Area Distribution Center, Rancho Cordova, CA 95743-0001. DO NOT send the form to this address. Instead, see Where To File on page 2.
