

Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments

2000

Purpose. This form is for U.S. citizens and residents who are recipients of pensions, annuities, including commercial annuities, and certain other deferred compensation. Use this form to tell payers whether you want any income tax withheld and on what basis. Your options depend on whether the payment is periodic, nonperiodic, or an eligible rollover distribution as explained on page 3.

You also may use this form to choose (a) not to have any income tax withheld from the payment (except for eligible rollover distributions or payments to U.S. citizens delivered outside the United States or its possessions) or (b) to have an additional amount of tax withheld.

What do I need to do? Complete lines A through G of the Personal Allowances Worksheet. Use the additional worksheets on page 2 to adjust your withholding allowances for itemized deductions, adjustments to income, or multiple pensions/more-than-one-income situations. If you do not want any income tax withheld, you can skip the worksheets and go directly to the Form W-4P below.

Additional Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

When should I complete the form? Complete Form W-4P and give it to the payer as soon as possible. Get Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding?, to see how the dollar amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2000.

Multiple pensions/more than one income. To figure the number of allowances you may claim, combine allowances and income subject to withholding from all sources on one worksheet. You may file a Form W-4P with each pension payer, but do not claim the same allowances more than once. Your withholding will usually be more accurate if you claim all allowances on the Form W-4P for the largest source of income subject to withholding.

Other income. If you have a large amount of income from other sources not subject to withholding (such as interest, dividends, or capital gains), consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676) to get Form 1040-ES and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax. You can also get forms and publications at the IRS's Internet Web Site at www.irs.gov.

Note: Social security and railroad retirement payments may be includible in income. See Form W-4V, Voluntary Withholding Request, for information on voluntary withholding on these payments.

Withholding From Pensions and Annuities

Generally, Federal income tax withholding applies to the taxable part of payments made from pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus, annuity, and certain deferred compensation plans; from individual retirement arrangements (IRAs); and from commercial annuities. The method and rate of withholding depends on the kind of payment you receive. Also, because your tax situation may change from year to year, you may want to refigure your withholding each year. You can change the amount to be withheld by using lines 2 and 3 of Form W-4P.

Choosing not to have income tax withheld. You can also choose not to have income tax withheld from your payments by using line 1 of Form W-4P. However, you may not make this choice for eligible rollover distributions (discussed later). Also, this choice does not apply to certain recipients who have payments delivered outside the United States or its possessions. See Payments Outside the United States on page 4.

Caution: There are penalties for not paying enough tax during the year, either through withholding or estimated tax payments. New retirees, especially, should see Pub. 505. It explains the estimated tax requirements and penalties in detail. You may be able to avoid quarterly estimated tax payments by having enough tax withheld from your pension or annuity using Form W-4P.

Periodic payments. Withholding from periodic payments of a pension or annuity is figured in the same manner as withholding from wages. Periodic payments are made in installments at regular intervals over a period of more than 1 year. They may be paid annually, quarterly, monthly, etc.

If you want income tax to be withheld, you must designate the number of withholding allowances on line 2 of Form W-4P. You cannot designate a specific dollar amount to be withheld. However, you can designate an additional amount to be withheld on line 3. If you do not want any income tax withheld from your periodic payments, check the box on line 1 of Form W-4P, and submit the form to your payer.

Caution: If you do not submit Form W-4P to your payer, the payer must withhold on periodic payments as if you are married claiming three withholding allowances. Generally, this means that tax will be withheld if your pension or annuity is at least $1,238 a month.

If you submit a Form W-4P that does not contain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN), the payer must withhold as if you are single claiming zero withholding allowances even if you choose not to have income tax withheld.

There are some kinds of periodic payments for which you cannot use Form W-4P because they are already defined as wages subject to income tax withholding. These payments include retirement pay for service in the U.S. Armed Forces and payments from certain nonqualified deferred compensation plans and state and local deferred compensation plans described in section 457. Your payer should be able to tell you whether Form W-4P applies.

For periodic payments, your Form W-4P stays in effect until you change or revoke it. Your payer must notify you each year of your right to choose not to have Federal income tax withheld or to revoke your election.

Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding. Your payer must withhold a flat 10% from nonperiodic payments (but see Eligible rollover distribution—20% withholding below) unless you choose not to have income tax withheld. Distributions from an IRA that are payable on demand are treated as nonperiodic payments. You can choose not to have income tax withheld from a nonperiodic payment by submitting Form W-4P (containing your correct TIN) to your payer and checking the box on line 1. Generally, your choice not to have income tax withheld will apply to any later payment from the same plan. You cannot use line 2 for nonperiodic payments. But you may use line 3 to specify an additional amount you want withheld.

Caution: If you submit a Form W-4P that does not contain your correct TIN, the payer cannot honor your request not to have income tax withheld and must withhold 10%.

Eligible rollover distribution—20% withholding. Distributions you receive from qualified pension or annuity plans (e.g., 401(k) pension plans) or tax-sheltered annuities that are eligible to be rolled over tax free to an IRA or qualified plan are subject to a flat 20% withholding. The 20% withholding is required, and you cannot choose not to have income tax withheld for eligible rollover distributions. See Pub. 505 for more details. However, the payer will not withhold income tax if the entire distribution is transferred by the plan administrator in a direct rollover to a traditional IRA, qualified pension plan, or tax-sheltered annuity. Do not give Form W-4P to your payer unless you want an additional amount withheld. Then, complete line 3 of Form W-4P, and submit the form to your payer.

Payments Outside the United States

If you are a U.S. citizen or resident alien receiving periodic or nonperiodic payments that are delivered outside the United States or its possessions, withholding is required. You cannot choose not to have income tax withheld on line 1 of Form W-4P.

Other recipients, such as nonresident aliens, who have these payments delivered outside the United States or its possessions may choose not to have income tax withheld only if an individual certifies to the payer that the individual is not (a) a U.S. citizen or resident alien or (b) an individual to whom section 877 applies (concerning expatriation to avoid tax). The certification must be made in a statement to the payer under penalties of perjury. A nonresident alien who chooses not to have income tax withheld under section 3405 is subject to withholding under section 1441.

Revoking Your "No Withholding" Choice

Periodic payments. If you previously chose not to have income tax withheld and you now want withholding, complete another Form W-4P and submit it to your payer. If you want income tax withheld at the rate set by law (married with three allowances), write "Revoked" next to the checkbox on line 1 of the form. If you want tax withheld at any different rate, complete line 2 on the form.

Nonperiodic payments. If you previously chose not to have income tax withheld and you now want withholding, write "Revoked" next to the checkbox on line 1 and submit Form W-4P to your payer.

Statement of Income Tax Withheld From Your Pension or Annuity

By January 31 of next year, your payer will furnish a statement to you showing the total amount of your pension or annuity payments and the total income tax withheld during the year on Form 1099-R, Distributions From Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc.
