APPLICATION

Publication 3112
including Form 8633
for Business and Individual e-file
Programs

What's New?

You may now apply to participate in all IRS e-file programs for all forms using one application Form 8633. This applies to Electronic Return Originators (ERO), Transmitters, Software Developers, Intermediate Service Providers, and Reporting Agents submitting form types 940, 941, 990, 1040, 1041, 1065, 1120, 1120 POL, State Ack, or ETD.

The IRS e-file Program has combined the application to participate in the business and individual e-file programs. Businesses and individuals can apply to participate in the IRS e-file Program by using the e-file application on-line or the new paper Form 8633. Effective August 1, 2003, business applicants will no longer be required to complete Form 9041, Application for Electronic/Magnetic Media Filing of Business and Employee Benefit Plan Returns to participate in the IRS e-file Program.

Why IRS e-file?

The IRS e-file program enables providers to file their clients' business and individual income tax returns and information returns electronically. Each year, more and more taxpayers and providers choose IRS e-file because their returns are processed faster with fewer errors. This means quicker refunds and less contact with the IRS. IRS e-file offers you proof of receipt within 48 hours of sending your client's tax return to the IRS. Your individual and business clients can e-file balance due returns and, at the same time, schedule a payment for a future withdrawal by initiating an electronic funds withdrawal. Individual taxpayers can also delay out of pocket expenses by paying with a credit card. As taxpayer demand for IRS e-file continues to grow, there are many ways you can meet the expectations of your clients by participating as an Authorized IRS e-file Provider.

► Information about the IRS e-file program and related topics can be found on the IRS Web Site at the following Internet address: <http://www.irs.gov> or by calling toll-free, 1-866-255-0654.

The IRS issues various Revenue Procedures that contain the rules for participating in the IRS e-file programs. Please read the applicable Revenue Procedures to meet your business needs before doing anything else. The current Revenue Procedures and other information about IRS e-file and related topics can be found on the IRS Web Site at the following Internet address: <http://www.irs.gov>.

BECOME AN AUTHORIZED IRS e-file PROVIDER IN 3 STEPS

1. Choose the Authorized IRS e-file Provider options that are best for you.
2. To complete the paper application, fill out and submit Form 8633, Application to Participate in the IRS e-file Program, and use the Accuracy Checklist to ensure that the application is complete. You have two options—you can complete the on-line e-file application or complete the paper Form 8633.
3. Pass a Suitability Background Check.

3 STEPS

CHOOSE THE AUTHORIZED IRS e-file
PROVIDER OPTIONS THAT ARE BEST FOR YOU

An Authorized IRS e-file Provider can be an Electronic Return Originator, Intermediate Service Provider, Transmitter, Software Developer or Reporting Agent. Be sure to include all your choices on the application form.

Electronic Return Originators (EROs) – originate the electronic submission of tax returns to the IRS. Check “yes” for Electronic Return Originator on the application.

Intermediate Service Providers – receive tax return information from EROs or from taxpayers who file electronically from home using their personal computers, either on an On-Line Internet Site, or by using commercial tax preparation software. Intermediate Service Providers process the tax return information and either forward the information to a transmitter, or send the information back to the EROs or taxpayers.

Transmitter – Once the return is prepared, the tax return data is sent to the IRS by a Transmitter. Transmitters must have software and modems that allow them to connect with IRS computers. EROs may apply to be transmitters and transmit return data themselves, or they may contract with accepted third-party transmitters who will transmit the data for them. Transmitters, who transmit returns filed from home by taxpayers using tax preparation software, are called “On-Line Filers.” On-Line Filers consist of 990, 1040, 1120, 1120POL filing. On-Line Filing applications must submit additional information with the application as outlined in the Form 8633 instructions. Guidelines for On-Line Filing can be found in Publication 1345, Handbook for Authorized e-file Providers. The Revenue Procedure also contains the rules for On-Line Filing. If you decide to be an On-Line

Filer, you must indicate this on your application by checking “yes” to boxes 2c for Transmitter and 2d for On-Line Filing. An entity that provides a “bump-up” service is a Transmitter. A bump-up service provider increases the transmission rate or line speed of formatted or reformatted information that is being sent to the IRS via a public switched telephone network.

Software Developers – Software Developers write the programs to IRS specifications that make IRS e-file and Federal/State e-file possible. The IRS and participating states require that all software pass a series of tests each year. Once approved, this software may be sold and used by EROs, Reporting Agents, Intermediate Service Providers and Transmitters. Federal/State Software Developers must also register and test with participating state electronic filing programs.

Reporting Agents – A Reporting Agent (Agent) is an accounting service, franchiser, bank, or other person that complies with Rev. Proc. 96-17, as modified by section 21.02 of this revenue procedure, and is authorized to electronically prepare a Form 940/941 for a taxpayer.

To become an ERO, Intermediate Service Provider, Transmitter, Software Developer or Reporting Agent, you must apply by submitting Form 8633 (see Step 2) and be accepted by the IRS. Before you apply, you need to decide which provider option(s) make the best business sense for you. In addition, you should contact a number of vendors and software developers to find the products that meet your business needs.

For additional information about Business e-file programs, see the following publications:

Publication 3715 – Technical Specifications Guide for the Electronic Filing of Form 940

Publication 1437 – Procedures for Electronic Filing of Form 1041

Publication 1438 – File Specifications for Form 1041

Federal/State e-file – Federal/State e-file is a cooperative tax filing program between the IRS and some of the states which have taxes. This process makes it possible for taxpayers to file both federal and state tax returns electronically at one time. Each participating state has its own requirements, but all require that you have been accepted in the IRS e-file program before they will accept you in their state programs.

► To become an Electronic Return Originator, Intermediate Service Provider, Transmitter, Software Developer or Reporting Agent, you must apply by submitting Form 8633 and be accepted by the IRS. Before you apply, you need to decide which provider options make the best business sense for you.

STEPS

FILL OUT AND SUBMIT FORM 8633, APPLICATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE IRS e-file PROGRAM

► Application forms to become new Authorized IRS e-file Providers may be submitted year round. It is important to submit your completed application no later than 45 days prior to the date you intend to begin filing returns electronically (business and/or individual).

Form 8633 is located in this package with complete line-by-line instructions. The form asks for basic information about your business, key people in your business and the provider options you have chosen in Step 1. You may choose more than one provider option, for example, ERO, Transmitter and Reporting Agent on one application. Do not check yes for the On-Line Filing question 2d unless you will receive returns from taxpayers that are preparing their taxes on commercially available software, software downloaded from an Internet site and prepared off-line, or through an on-line Internet site. Note for On-Line Filing Applicants: detailed instructions are outlined on page 3 of the application.

The Form 8633 is also used to notify the IRS when changes occur in your business. It is important that you update your application information whenever changes occur. You may do this by revising your Form 8633 (paper Form 8633 or e-file application online), or by mailing the changes on your company letterhead to the Andover Campus, signed by a firm official. You may also call toll-free, 1-866-255-0654 to make some changes. Applications must be updated within 30 days of the date changes occurred. Any changes affecting suitability such as changes to TINs and corporate structure cannot be made via telephone. Original/revised Form 8633 or any changes submitted on letterhead should not be faxed to Andover Campus. Any faxes submitted may result in delay of the processing of the information.

After completing the form, please take the time to check it against the enclosed Form 8633 Accuracy Checklist. This will help ensure that you haven't forgotten something such as signatures, or attachments needed, such as fingerprint cards, or evidence of professional status. Applications are returned if they are incomplete.

Include fingerprint cards or evidence of professional status for all principals of your firm (line 7) and responsible officials (line 8). Only one set of fingerprint cards is required for each principal and responsible official. To obtain fingerprint cards, call toll-free, 1-866-255-0654. New fingerprint cards are not required ► Make sure to have all required signatures. Missing signatures will result in the return of your application.

► If you need to submit fingerprint cards, you may obtain them by calling toll-free, 1-866-255-0654.

► Submit your completed application to become a new Authorized IRS e-file Provider no later than 45 days before you intend to begin filing returns electronically.

for individuals who submitted them in the past with another application that is currently active. The fingerprint cards for the e-file programs are unique and can only be obtained from the Andover Campus.

Application forms to become new Authorized IRS e-file Providers may be submitted year round. Once the provider is accepted into the program, there is no need to reapply.

When the IRS receives the application form, we will acknowledge its receipt with a letter, assign identification numbers after suitability is passed, and where applicable, issue a password for testing based on the provider options you have chosen, as follows:

- EROs, Transmitters, Software Developers, Reporting Agents and Intermediate Service Providers will receive an Electronic Filing Identification Number (EFIN) for the home location which is each location based on the firm's business address;
- Transmitters and Software Developers will also receive an Electronic Transmitter Identification Number (ETIN) and a password for testing.

Processing the applications and completing the suitability background checks (see Step 3) can take up to 45 days. The IRS encourages all prospective Authorized IRS e-file providers to apply no later than two months prior to the date you intend to begin filing returns electronically (business and/or individual); apply later and you may not be accepted in time to begin e-filing based on your filing season.

PASS A SUITABILITY BACKGROUND CHECK

▶ All principals of your firm and responsible officials must pass the suitability check before the firm will be accepted into the IRS e-file program.

Transmitters and Software Developers must also test their software and transmission capability with the IRS once a year.

When you apply to become an ERO, Transmitter, Reporting Agent or Intermediate Service Provider, the IRS will conduct a background check on all the principals of your firm and responsible officials listed on the application to determine their suitability to be Authorized IRS e-file Providers. If you apply to be a Software Developer only, a suitability check is not required.

SUITABILITY CHECKS MAY INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

1. An FBI criminal background check;
2. A credit history check;
3. An IRS records check to a) ensure that all individual and business tax returns are filed and balance paid or appropriately addressed, and b) identify instances of fraud and preparer penalties; and
4. A history check for prior non-compliance in the Electronic Filing or IRS e-file programs.

All principals of your firm and responsible officials must pass the suitability check before the firm will be accepted into the IRS e-file program and before the assignment of identification numbers. If anyone fails, your application will be rejected. If your application is rejected, you will be notified in writing. You may appeal. If your application rejection is upheld on appeal, you may not reapply to become an Authorized IRS e-file Provider for two years.

ACCEPTANCE

▶ After your application is processed and all involved parties pass the suitability test, you will be sent an acceptance letter. The IRS will also send to you a promotional kit that entitles you to identify yourself as an “Authorized IRS e-file Provider.”

After the principals of your firm and responsible officials pass suitability and your application is processed, you will receive an acceptance letter. Transmitters and Software Developers must also complete testing before an acceptance letter is sent.

Once accepted, you do not have to reapply each year as long as you continue to e-file returns. However, if you do not e-file returns for two consecutive years, you will be dropped from the program and will have to complete a new application. If you are suspended for any reason, you may request reconsideration for participation in the IRS e-file program after your suspension period is completed.

After testing is completed satisfactorily, Transmitters will be issued a password that authorizes them to transmit e-filed return data during the filing season which begins in mid-January and continues through mid-October for Individual Income Tax Returns, and the filing season for Business Income Tax Returns and Information Returns which is year round. Testing is required each year for transmitters and software developers.

The IRS works with you by providing a promotional kit that entitles you to identify yourself as an “Authorized IRS e-file Provider.” IRS e-file is also supported with advertising on radio, television and in print. Materials are provided that you can customize for your own advertising and promotion. And that’s not all! As an Authorized IRS e-file Provider you become eligible for special recognition and an incentives and rewards program.

For more information on the promotional kits, and the incentive and rewards program, please go to the IRS Web Site at www.irs.gov.

THE ANDOVER CAMPUS “CAN WE TALK?” CORNER

The application and suitability check process can be a stressful one for potential e-file providers. We’d like to share with you some information that may help to prevent this from happening and may even make the experience, we hope, a pleasant one.

SUITABILITY CHECKS

The IRS’s Andover Campus conducts suitability checks on all active participants of the IRS’s e-file program. The suitability process protects the integrity of the e-file program by ensuring that all Authorized IRS e-file Providers continue to meet their personal and business tax responsibilities.

Suitability checks are performed on all firms, the principals of each firm, and all responsible officials to determine if:

1. All personal income tax returns are filed;
2. All business tax returns are filed;
3. All tax liabilities are paid or appropriately addressed;
4. Penalties have been assessed; and
5. There is evidence of disreputable conduct or other facts that would reflect adversely on the program.

Failure to meet any of these checks may result in sanctions ranging from a written reprimand to expulsion from the program.

If you receive a letter from the Andover Campus proposing sanctions, you have the right to an administrative review. It is critical that you respond with a written explanation and supporting documentation within the 30-day timeframe to protect your provider status.

DON’T TAKE CHANCES: TIPS FOR PASSING SUITABILITY

The following tips can help you prevent — rectify — problems for yourself and your firm as you undergo the IRS’s suitability process each year.

1. Notify us of any address/phone number changes within 30 days.
2. Respond (timely, completely and in writing) by mail to any letters you receive.
3. Anticipate suitability issues and move to correct them before they become problems.
4. Insist on integrity from all members of your firm.

For more information on suitability and other program safeguards, see Publication 1345, Handbook for Authorized IRS e-file Providers. A copy of the handbook can be requested through the Application/Suitability Customer Service telephone number, 1-866-255-0654.
